

EUROSKILLS

EUROSKILLS IS HAPPENING THANKS TO OUR VOLUNTEERS

No large event is possible without volunteers. We are around 350 volunteers working before, during and after the events at EuroSkills 2016. The volunteers cover several different areas such as hospitality, ceremonies, workshop assistance, acting, media and communication, support service, security and medical assistance among others. Most of us who are working at EuroSkills are Swedish speaking although some of us comes from many other places in Europe. Get to know some of us and our experiences of working at EuroSkills!

INES SHEHU, 17
FROM ALBANIA

How did you find out about EuroSkills?: I heard about it from my aunt who wanted me to come here because she thought it would be a great experience.

What's your main task?: I work at the ceremonies and help preparing the stage, I also help the guests with there speeches.

What do you think about working as volunteer?: I find it very exiting and necessary for me to know myself better and therefor I think this would be a great experience for me as a part of my life.

What do you like most about working at EuroSkills?: I like the environment, the people, the job, the activities. Everything!

EMI CHRIS BAÇI, 19
FROM ALBANIA

How did you find out about EuroSkills?:

I participated at AlbaniaSkills and when EuroSkills was organised in Gothenburg I was asked to come here.

What's your main task?: I work at the supports service and help everybody who needs my support.

What do you think about working as volunteer?: It's great, I work here everyday at the shifts I've been provided. It's a great experience.

What do you like most about working at EuroSkills?: That it's an activity that brings people together from every part of Europe. There are many different contestants with diverse professions you can watch whilst they're competing.

JONAS MOEN, 53, FROM SWEDEN

How did you find out about EuroSkills?: I found out about EuroSkills through a notification in a newspaper called "Elinstallatören".

How did you end up working as a volunteer?: I visited WorldSkills a couple of years ago and thought it was interesting watching competent youths from all over the world working in action. When I came back to Sweden I thought it would be a great opportunity for me to assist as a volunteer.

What's your main task?: My task is to help with whatever is needed at the site where the youths are competing within electrical installations.

What do you like most about working at EuroSkills?: The best part about EuroSkills is that you get work with dedicated youths from different countries all across Europe. It's interesting to see how the competitors techniques vary even though they use the exact same material.
